Another resolution accepted as a modus vivendi the suggestion of the Field Representative of the "National Committee to Abolish the HCUA," (NCAHUAC) namely that local abolition committees may identify and coordinate their efforts as closely as they desire with HCUA, still maintaining their autonomy for as flexible and independent a program as possible.

A third, fourth and fifth source have advised during March, 1962, that Communist Party (CP) members in the New York City area have been solicited to support activities of the NYCAHUAC during attendance at CP club meetings.

We wish you a happy New Year and we thank you for your continuing cooperation.

1966 will be the year of the most significant and critical action in behalf of freedom for Morton Sobell since the time of the execution of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg.

Following is a memo from the national office that is of great interest to all of us.

"On January 10, 1966 the legal action summarized in the enclosed statement will be filed in the United States District Court at Foley Square. The moving papers ask for a hearing to be held for the purpose of freeing Morton Sobell because his constitutional rights were violated when the prosecution used forgery, perjury, and suppressed evidence in the Rosenberg-Sobell trial held in 1951.

We are asking that this petition in the courts be supported as strongly as possible through requests to Attorney General Katzenbach, Justice Department, Washington, D. C., that the hearing not be opposed by the U. S. Attorney. We ask further that since the charges are so serious, and so well documented, and since the issues are of national and international importance, the Attorney General use the power of his office to insure that this hearing be accorded to Morton Sobell.

Letters, postcards, letters to the editors, telegrams from as many, and as influential people as possible are the methods for expressing the urgent concern and deep dissatisfaction caused by the many unanswered questions in this case. In particular the documented evidence presented by Walter and Miriam Schneir in 'Invitation to an Inquest, A New Look at the Rosenberg-Sobell Case,' published by Doubleday on August 20, 1965 must be answered in a free society."

Continuing Effort for Truth in the Rosenberg-Sobell Case
Court Action Seeks Freedom for Morton Sobell

SUMMARY OF MOTION TO VACATE SENTENCE

According to Title 28, United States Code, §2255, it is possible for a federal prisoner who claims that his sentence was illegally imposed to move for his release. One of the main grounds for such a motion is that "the sentence was imposed in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States..." The motion is made before the court which originally sentenced the prisoner, in this case the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York.

In brief, Morton Sobell is claiming that he was illegally convicted of a conspiracy to transmit information relating to the national defense to the Soviet Union because the prosecution (1) knowingly used perjured testimony and forged documents, and (2) suppressed evidence that would have proved his innocence. He now asks only for a hearing in which to prove the truth of his charges.

The government's case was based solely and exclusively on the existence of a grand conspiracy among confessed atomic spies David and Ruth Greenglass, admitted Soviet courier Harry Gold, former Russian Vice-Consul Anatoli A. Yakovlev, the Rosenbergs and Mr. Sobell for the purpose of transmitting atomic bomb information to the Soviet Union. The only legally sufficient evidence to support this conspiracy was an alleged meeting between the Greenglasses and Gold on June 3, 1945, in Albuquerque, N.M. As the prosecution well knew, this meeting never took place.

In order to prove that it did, the government introduced the only documentary evidence as to Gold's presence in Albuquerque on June 3, 1945 -- namely, a photostatic copy of a Hotel Hilton registration card. This card is a provable forgery. Not only did it bear a time-date stamp for the following day, but it is visibly different from legitimate cards issued by the hotel at approximately the same time.

This photostat was introduced into evidence at the trial as Exhibit 16 a day after the testimony of Harry Gold, when it would normally have been proffered. The prosecution waited until it was assured that Gold was not going to be cross-examined by the defense to offer the card. Obviously, it did not want Gold to be questioned about a document that materially contradicted his own testimony and varied from legitimate cards.

Mrs. Elizabeth McCarthy, a recognized handwriting expert who has examined Exhibit 16 and a legitimate card, has come to the conclusion that there are serious doubts as to the authenticity of the former. However, she insists that only by a microscopic examination of the originals can she render a final opinion. Despite extensive correspondence from Mr. Sobell's lawyers to FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover requesting the production of the cards for such an examination, they have not been forthcoming.

Gold's pre-trial statements to his own lawyer, which were not made available to Sobell or the Rosenbergs, clearly reveal that he perjured himself about the June 3rd Albuquerque meeting. Among other things, they indicated that he did not remember the name "Greenglass", had never stayed at the Hilton Hotel in June, 1945, had not used a jello box side or the name "Julius" to identify himself in Albuquerque and had received information of no value from an anonymous soldier. It was only after hundreds of hours with the FBI that the story he told at the trial emerged.

Moreover, the government failed to call to the stand a woman who, according to the prosecution, was "an espionage courier", even though her name appeared on its list of witnesses. As it well knew, this woman -- one Ann Sidorovich -- would have denied any espionage activities and shattered the entire jello box side fabrication.

Lastly, the financial history of the Greenglasses suggests that they were receiving money regularly from a variety of unexplained sources. In fact, it was their deposit of $400.00 on June 4, 1945, the day after a weekend when Greenglass would normally be on leave from his military duties, that led to the date of the fabricated Gold visit to Albuquerque. The government took the juxtaposition of the $400.00 deposit and the weekend to arrive at the June 3 date. All that was then necessary, outside of the Greenglass perjury, was some documentary proof of Gold's presence in Albuquerque. Hence the forged registration card.

In his petition, Sobell will ask for bail or an order providing for his presence at any hearing. Although he has filed other petitions, on different grounds, prior to this one, he has never received the hearing provided for in the statute. If he is granted such a hearing, he is prepared to place people on the stand to testify to the truth of every charge he makes. As the citizen of a country which prides itself on its adherence to due process, he is entitled to be heard. If he is, perhaps the truth will out after fifteen long years.

The attorneys for Morton Sobell are William M. Kunstler and Marshall Perlin. The date for the filing of the motion is January 6, 1966.

[REDACTED]

b7D

On October 26, 1965, WALTER SCHNEIR and HELEN SOBELL spoke at 1102 Grand Avenue, Seattle, which meeting was attended by some 30-35 persons. WALTER SCHNEIR said that to understand the ROSENBERG-SOBELL case, the world political climate subsequent to World War II must be understood.

He said that false truth had been spread over the United States and that the fabrication of a nuclear weapon depended entirely on the highly secretive formula for an equation, which only the U.S. knew. He said that eminent scientists subsequently proved the futility of this idea by saying any nation was equally able through exhaustive experiments and study to develop means of developing nuclear fission in the form of weapons. He claimed the U.S. had no case against the ROSENBERGS and that the chief witness of the U.S., HARRY GOLD, was a pathological liar. WALTER SCHNEIR said that he and his wife's five-year research into the ROSENBERG case has turned up a startling miscarriage of justice.

At this meeting, HELEN SOBELL spoke of her husband's imprisonment and said she wanted to sell the SCHNEIR book to raise money for court fees.

[REDACTED] b7D
JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG and MORTON SOBELL were convicted in the U.S. District Court (USDC), Southern District of New York (SDNY), on March 29, 1951, on a charge of conspiracy to commit espionage on behalf of the USSR. The ROSENBERGS were sentenced to death on April 5, 1951, and MORTON SOBELL was sentenced to 30-years' imprisonment on the same date. JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG were legally executed at Sing Sing Prison, Ossining, New York, on June 19, 1953. MORTON SOBELL is currently serving his sentence in the custody of the U.S. Attorney General.

Source made a similar report on the above meeting.

[REDACTED] b7D
[REDACTED] b7D
[REDACTED] described SCHNEIR's book, "Invitation

"to an Inquest" as a "rehash" of the ROSENBERG-SOBELL case.

[REDACTED]

The "National Guardian," weekly New York, New York, newspaper, in its issue of January 9, 1965, carried an article captioned "SDS Calls April 17 Demonstration in Washington," which indicated that the SDS would sponsor a "Student March on Washington, April 17" (1965) to demand an end to United States intervention in the Vietnam war. The article continued that the SDS constitution describes it as a group of "liberals and radicals, activists and scholars, students and faculty," united to work toward a society in which "the people have control of the decisions that affect them and the resources on which they are dependent." The article continued the "SDS, in recent years, has moved away from a sectarian approach and toward the new left."

The "National Guardian" is characterized in the Appendix section of this report.

[REDACTED]

On October 27, 1965, (WALTER) SCHNEIR and Mrs. MORTON SOBELL gave a talk under the sponsorship of the SDS in Room 84A of "The Hub", University of Washington. Approximately sixty persons were present and the talk lasted about 45 minutes. WALTER SCHNEIR remarked he had positive proof MORTON SOBELL was unjustly convicted and contended that the star witness against MORTON SOBELL, and was named GOLD, was a compulsive liar. Mrs. SOBELL said she did not feel her husband was guilty and asked for contributions for her cause and for people to buy the SCHNEIR book.

 b7D
Sources made available Seattle Sobell literature advertising SCHNEIR's book and summary of the action taken to vacate the sentence of MORTON SOBELL.

COMMITTEE TO SECURE JUSTICE FOR MORTON SOBELL

"Following the execution of atomic spies Ethel and Julius Rosenberg, in June, 1953, the 'Communist campaign assumed a different emphasis. Its major effort centered upon Morton Sobell, the Rosenbergs' codefendant. The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case—a Communist front which had been conducting the campaign in the United States—was reconstituted as the National Rosenberg-Sobell Committee at a conference in Chicago in October, 1953, and then the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg Case'..."

("Guide to Subversive Control Organizations and Publications," dated December 1, 1961, issued by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, page 116.)

In September, 1954, the name "National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell" appeared on literature issued by the Committee. In March, 1955, the current name, "Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell" first appeared on literature issued by the Committee.

The Address Telephone Directory for the Borough of Manhattan, New York City, as published by the New York Telephone Company on April 6, 1965, lists the Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell as being located at 150 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE,
CHICAGO CHAPTER

A source advised in October, 1960, that the Chicago Chapter of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) was formed during the summer of 1960 at Chicago, Illinois, under the direct guidance and leadership of RICHARD CRILEY, a member of the State Committee, Communist Party (CP) of Illinois.

A second source in August, 1960, furnished a leaflet entitled, "What Is Really Happening in Cuba?" distributed by the FPCC in Chicago. The aims and purposes of the FPCC as set forth in this leaflet include the following: "To disseminate the truth, to combat untruth; to publish and distribute factual information which the United States mass media suppresses. In general, to contribute to foundations for peace, friendship, and understanding between ourselves and the Cuban people." The leaflet reflects the FPCC plans to accomplish these aims: "By mailing of informational bulletins; organizing public meetings and forums; providing speakers, movies, and slides for meetings of interested organizations, placing ads in newspapers; to visit Cuba and see for themselves what conditions really are."

A third source advised on March 9, 1964, that there has been no activity of the FPCC in Chicago since late November, 1963, and for all intents and purposes the organization is defunct.

The mailing address for the FPCC, Chicago Chapter, is Post Office Box 4474, Chicago 80, Illinois.

APPENDIXFAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. [REDACTED] that during the past year there had been a successful effort [REDACTED] to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that their influence as of May, 1963, was negligible. b7D

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

[REDACTED] advised that VINCENT "TED" LEE, FPCC National Office Director, was then formulating FPCC policy. [REDACTED] b7D

[REDACTED] that the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and should support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations. [REDACTED]

APPENDIX

The November 23, 1963, edition of "The New York Times" reported that Senator THOMAS J. DODD of Connecticut had called FPCC "the chief public relations instrument of the Castro network in the United States." It is to be noted that Senator DODD was a member of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee which twice conducted hearings on the FPCC.

The December 27, 1963, edition of "The New York World Telegram and Sun" newspaper stated that the pro-CASTRO FPCC was seeking to go out of business and that its prime activity during its lifetime had been sponsorship of pro-CASTRO street rallies and mass picket lines, and the direction of an active propaganda mill highlighting illegal travel-to-Cuba campaigns. Its comparatively brief span of life was attributed to mounting anti-CASTRO American public opinion, the 1962 Congressional hearings which disclosed FPCC financing by CASTRO's United Nations Delegation, and ultimately, the bad publicity which the FPCC received from disclosure of activities on its behalf by suspected presidential assassin LEE H. OSWALD.

On February 6, 1964, [REDACTED] source advised that [REDACTED] the FPCC was dead and that there were no plans to organize another similar organization. b7D

On April 13, 1964, a third source advised that there had not been any FPCC activity in many months and that the FPCC had been dissolved.

OF FOREIGN BORN

On May 5, 1955, a source advised that in a "Statement of Principles" issued in April, 1955, by the MCPFB, it was noted that "The purpose of the Midwest Committee shall be to seek to perpetuate for the foreign born the fundamental concepts of equality, regardless of race, color, creed, nationality, political belief or place of birth, and to preserve the basic ideals of liberty and hospitality which serve as the guarantees of democracy for all Americans."

[REDACTED] as of May 17, 1965, advised that the MCPFB continued to function as the midwest organization of the ACPFB and still adhered to its "Statement of Principles" last published in 1955. b7D

NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD
CHICAGO CHAPTER

A source advised on May 17, 1965, that it was his understanding that the National Lawyers Guild (NLG) was formed around 1936 in New York City and that the Chicago Chapter of the NLG (CCNLG), which is affiliated with the national group in New York, was formed shortly thereafter, possibly in 1937, by a group of liberal progressive lawyers in protest against activities of the American Bar Association which they claimed was a non-liberal, non-progressive organization. On October 17, 1965, a Special Agent of the FBI observed WALTER SCHNEIR when he appeared on the Louis Lomax television program on Channel 11, TTV, Los Angeles. SCHNEIR appeared at approximately 11:45 p.m. LOMAX characterized SCHNEIR's book, "Invitation to an Inquest", as "tremendous reading." He described the "MC CARTHY era", stating "we lived in a sort of dream world. . .believing only we had the bomb. . ." LOMAX stated that "according to TIME," shortly after the trial of the ROSENBERGS (above), the Russians had had information concerning the bomb since 1940. LOMAX asked SCHNEIR if he was a communist. SCHNEIR stated he was not. He asked SCHNEIR if he and his wife were members of the CSJMS and SCHNEIR said they were not. SCHNEIR stated he and his wife had been doing research on the "whole MC CARTHY period. . ." and that in the course of this, reviewed the ROSENBERG-SOBELL case. In response to a question, SCHNEIR stated "We arrived at the conclusion the ROSENBERGS were innocent of the crime of which they were accused." LOMAX asked if the essence of SCHNEIR's story was not that one man had been in prison for 16 years, and two people were executed for crimes they did not commit? SCHNEIR said this was their conclusion. SCHNEIR stated a key piece of evidence in the trial of SOBELL, a hotel registration card, was believed to be a forgery, stating it was the FBI which supplied evidence for trials. LOMAX asked if SCHNEIR charged the FBI forged documents? SCHNEIR replied he was only stating this document was a forgery.

LOMAX then introduced Mrs. SOBELL, wife of MORTON SOBELL, who stated in essence that her husband was in prison because he refused to be a false witness for the prosecution.

On October 17, 1965, informant viewed the above television program and reported essentially the same information regarding the interview of HELEN SOBELL and WALTER SCHNEIR. b7D

APPENDIXCOMMITTEE TO SECURE JUSTICE FOR MORTON SOBELL

A source advised on May 5, 1965, that the Los Angeles Sobell Committee is the Los Angeles, California affiliate of captioned organization.

Following the execution of atomic spies ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG in June, 1953, the "Communist campaign assumed a different emphasis. Its major effort centered upon MORTON SOBELL," the ROSENBERGS' codefendant. The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg case, a Communist front which had been conducting the campaign in the United States, - was reconstituted as the National Rosenberg Sobell Committee at a conference in Chicago in October, 1953, and "then as the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg Case."

("Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" dated December 1, 1961, issued by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, page 116.)

In September, 1954, the name "National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell" appeared on literature issued by the Committee. In March, 1955, the current name, "Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell," first appeared on literature issued by the Committee.

The above source advised on May 5, 1965, that literature relating to the Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell bears the current address of the Committee as 150-5th Avenue, New York City, New York.

~~SECRET~~1APPENDIXCOMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE FIRST UNITARIAN CHURCH OF LOS ANGELES

A source advised on May 4, 1965, that the premises of the First Unitarian Church of Los Angeles have been utilized for meetings by Communist Party members and sympathizers over a period of years. Speakers and lecturers at the church frequently espouse Communist causes or follow the Communist Party line. Communist front group literature is distributed at the church. The church is used by some Communist Party members for "mass concentration" work.

This same infiltration extends to adjuncts of the church such as the Unitarian Public Forum and the Unitarian-Universalist Fellowship for Social Justice.

STEPHEN H. FRITCHMAN has been minister of the church since 1948.

Reverend STEPHEN H. FRITCHMAN is described in the Fourth Report, Un-American Activities Committee in California, 1948, page 115, as a very active "Communist fronter" and connected with numerous "Communist front organizations and activities."

Membership in the First Unitarian Church does not of itself, connote membership in or sympathy with the Communist Party.

EMMA LAZARUS FEDERATION OF JEWISH WOMEN'S CLUBS

A source advised on May 19, 1965, that the Emma Lazarus Jewish Women's Clubs of Los Angeles (ELJWC of LA) are affiliated with the Emma Lazarus Federation of Jewish Women's Clubs with headquarters in New York, New York. The ELJWC of LA have been active from the early 1950's to the present time. Prior thereto the organization was known as the Emma Lazarus Division of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order (JPFO). The JPFO has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The ELJWC of LA is controlled by officers who are either current members of the Southern California District, Communist Party (SCDCP) or who have had past affiliations with Communist Party dominated organizations. The Jewish Commission, SCDCP, exercises influence over the ELJWC of LA inasmuch as the President of the ELJWC of LA is also a member of the SCDCP Jewish Commission and the organization closely follows the Communist Party line.

A source advised the following on February 16, 1965:

The Jewish Information Service was formed about January, 1965, in Los Angeles for the purpose of continuing the activity of the defunct International Workers Order. Prior to March 4, 1966, the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs were identified as the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural Clubs, this group being formerly known as Lodges of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order. ~~The Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs are currently active in the Los Angeles area.~~

The Fraternal Medical Plan of the California Fraternal Service Association was formed about January, 1954, for the purpose of continuing the activity of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order Medical Plan. Since that date the functioning of the Fraternal Order Medical Plan of the California Fraternal Service Association has been integrated into the operation of the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs, inasmuch as the service provided by the Fraternal Medical Plan of the California Fraternal Service Association is made available most exclusively to members of the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs; further, effort is made to have members of the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs also become members of the Fraternal Medical Plan of the California Fraternal Service Association.

The Fraternal Medical Plan of the California Fraternal Service Association is currently active in the Los Angeles area.

On February 3, 1963, it was announced at a meeting of the Westside Jewish Cultural Club in Los Angeles,

Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations", revised, December 1, 1961, pp. 103-104 describes this committee as follows:

"A 'branch' of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born found to be under the 'actual management, direction and supervision' of Communist Party members. The Los Angeles Committee was reorganized in October, 1950 and reported that it 'shall be affiliated to the national organization known as the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born***'. The American Committee and the 'various area or local committees * * * constitute * * * one organization within the meaning of the * * * statute (Internal Security Act)' under which the Subversive Activities Control Board found to be a 'Communist-front organization' and ordered it to register as such with the Attorney General".

(Subversive Activities Control Board, Docket No. 109-53, Report and Order with respect to the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, June 27, 1960, pp. 41, 8, 12 and 51:.)

"Cited as a 'regional' organization of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born and one of its 'most complex affiliates.' 'The Committee on Un-American Activities found that in early publications the local affiliates frankly identified themselves as chapters of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born' their representation of themselves as independent groups came only after enactment of the Internal Security Act which would have required them as affiliates, to register as Communist-front organizations."

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIANS FOR ABOLITION OF THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES
COMMITTEE, also known as Citizens
Committee to Preserve American Freedoms

A source advised on January 25, 1966, that the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms (CCPAF), 555 North Western Avenue, Los Angeles, California, has changed its name to Southern Californians for Abolition of the House Un-American Activities Committee. The change in name was voted on at a special meeting of the CCPAF Executive Board on January 8, 1966, subject to approval by all Executive Board members and local sustainers of the CCPAF. Approval was rendered by an overwhelming vote to adopt the new name of Southern Californians for Abolition of the House Un-American Activities Committee.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations", revised, December 1, 1961, pp. 43-44, describes the CCPAF as follows:

"The Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms * * * specializes in propaganda aimed at abolishing the Committee on Un-American Activities and discrediting the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Created in Los Angeles in 1952, the front organization is run by FRANK WILKINSON, an identified Communist who recently resumed the full-time, paid post of executive secretary after approximately a year's leave of absence to assist in a similar campaign by another front in New York City; the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee.

"When the Committee on Un-American Activities held hearings in Los Angeles, September 2-5, 1958, to inquire into the nature of the Party's recent reorganization in California, the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms sponsored a series of public meetings to protest the hearings and the very existence of the Committee. Communists subpoenaed as witnesses were guests of honor.

"At this time, leaders of the party's Southern California District, were mobilizing Communists in the area for participation in an intensified campaign to abolish this committee of Congress. How the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms served the party in this effort

"was revealed by (Communist Party) District Chairman DOROTHY HEALEY in a report to the party's Southern California District Council on September 21, 1958. Mrs. HEALEY declared that the party preferred public protest meetings to be held by the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms rather than under party auspices because Communists could attend without danger of being exposed as members of the party. She also noted that Communists scheduled as congressional committee witnesses could not appear beforehand at openly Communist rallies without creating the impression that the party was conspiring with witnesses to withhold information from the committee."

Director J. EDGAR HOOVER as perpetuating the myth that the United States would have a monopoly on the atom bomb and due to the fact that Russia developed the bomb, the ROSENBERGS and SOBELL were accused of aiding Soviet Russia in this endeavor. He charged that as soon as the Russians did get their first atom bomb in 1949, J. EDGAR HOOVER is purported to have claimed that this was definitely evidence of treason. Both MIRIAM SCHNEIR and WALTER SCHNEIR during this meeting attempted to review the testimony of all witnesses in the ROSENBERG trial and to show that half-truths, perjury, manufacturing of evidence, suppression of evidence and the coaching of witnesses by the FBI was used in the prosecution of the ROSENBERGS and MORTON SOBELL.

The Bay Area Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell published a leaflet announcing a party to be held Saturday, March 12, 1966, at 30 Lopez Street. The leaflet announces a contribution of $1 to "benefit MORTON SOBELL toward freedom." Directions to arrive at this address were set forth and it included a newsletter which was attached.

"In the book, Invitation to an Inquest, published by Doubleday, authors Walter and Miriam Schneir, after a five-year examination of every possible thread in the Rosenberg-Sobell case, conclude that 'Not only were Julius and Ethel Rosenberg--and Morton Sobell--unjustly convicted, they were punished for a crime that never occurred.' The authors present documentary proof of perjury, forgery, and suppression of evidence by the prosecution.

"The lawyers in the case are filing a Motion to Vacate Sentence in the Federal Court this month. Morton Sobell, who, all through his sixteen years in prison, has insisted on his innocence, would then be afforded an opportunity to present evidence and call witnesses to attest to his innocence.

"WE URGE YOU TO WRITE Attorney General Nicholas Katzenbach, Washington, D. C., asking him to support this motion. We also urge letters to your Congressman asking him to use his good offices to secure Mr. Katzenbach's support of the motion.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are, "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-Communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people. As young people in the forces struggling for democracy, we shall actively strive to defeat these reactionary and neo-fascist elements and to achieve complete freedom and democracy for all Americans, thus enabling each individual to freely choose and build the society he would wish to live in. Through these struggles we feel the American people will realize the viability of the socialist alternative."

Sobell to Be Brought Here

Morton Sobell, trying to win release from a 30-year-term for conspiracy to commit wartime espionage, will be brought from the Federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., to the Federal House of Detention here for two days of conferences with his lawyers and scientists. William A. Kunstler of the defense counsel said the Government had agreed yesterday to bring Sobell here during the week of June 6.
